Bishop George A. Sheltz

Incarnate Word Academy's 2013 Gala & Auction will pay tribute to Bishop George A. Sheltz, the seventh Auxiliary Bishop of Galveston-Houston. Born, raised and educated in faith in our fair city, Bishop Sheltz – together with his father, uncle and brother – have devoted 150 years of ordained ministry to the oldest and largest diocese in Texas, truly making Bishop Sheltz a Lone Star Legacy!

For almost 140 years, Incarnate Word Academy has shared its own legacy as the first and oldest Catholic school in Houston. IWA provides a strong college preparatory education for young women, grounded in Catholic values.

Bishop Sheltz has a deep appreciation for Catholic education and knows firsthand the excellent education offered at IWA. Not only was he educated by fellow Sisters of the Incarnate Word and Blessed Sacrament, but his mother Margaret Frank Sheltz '39 and sister Mary Margaret Sheltz Keen '60 are both IWA graduates.
